

Jacqueline (Jackie) McLaughlin, CPA

Jackie McLaughlin is a CPA with over 30 years' experience, 13 of which are in the not-for-profit space. She's helped turn around multiple organizations that struggled with cash flow and their bottom lines. Jackie credits this to her ability to let the numbers tell the story. She believes that once organizational leaders understand the financial story that is being told, they are better empowered to make decisions that will ultimately lead their organizations to success!
