

Dana C. Bordsen - MA, ATR-BC, LCAT, UZIT

Dana received a BFA from the School of Visual Arts, and an MA in Creative Arts Therapy from Hofstra University. She is presently the Regional Director of Integrative Therapy for a Northeastern-based healthcare corporation and owns a private practice supporting children and adults.

Dana has over 10 years of experience in the Art Therapy field. She incorporates Art Therapy and many other healing modalities into her work.

Her passion to bring calm, sense of purpose, and self-reflection are the cornerstone of her approach to support clients. Her belief is that in any stage of our lives, we have the opportunity to grow and learn new ways of coping in order to live a happier and more meaningful life.