

Beth Hercher

Beth Hercher is a previous Qsource associate with 14 years' experience in quality improvement in nursing home and LTC settings; CPHQ certification and TeamSTEPPS Master Trainer. Demonstrated success in project management, program design, stakeholder engagement, collaboration and coordination functions; proven capacity for clinical performance measurement, process improvement and organizational culture change; dedicated customer service orientation and client recruitment.